

ON-THE-JOB TRAINING (OJT)

Incentive for Businesses to Hire and Train Workers

What is On-the-Job Training (OJT)?

OJT program gives businesses an incentive to hire and train individuals in full-time, skilled occupations. The OJT program matches businesses with qualified job seekers who are eager to work, but need the specialized training only an employer can supply. In exchange, Monterey County Workforce Development Board agrees to reimburse the business for a portion of their wages to cover part of their training expenses. The MCWDB repays the business up to 50% of the trainee's starting wage for a set period while the trainee masters the required skill.

How can employers get involved with an OJT Program?

In general, an OJT program will require that a business:

- ◆ Have a physical location in Monterey County
- ◆ Commit to hiring Monterey County residents
- ◆ Offer positions in full time employment (32 hours a week)
- ◆ Provide wages of at least $14/hour
- ◆ Complete training in 6 months or less
