

Monterey County Workforce Development Board COVID-19 Rapid Response Services

Services for Employers

Our Rapid Response services assist employers at risk of closing, downsizing and/or laying off employees with high quality services and resources to help employers sustain and retain jobs.

Rapid Response Team

- MCWDB staff are your business liaisons to accessing information about how to sustain your business during this disaster
- The Rapid Response team also conducts online sessions where your employees can learn about employment benefits, job search assistance and future training opportunities
- Teleconferencing is available by request

ON HOLD

Later, our MCWDB Rapid Response Team can provide in person sessions to prepare your employees for their next career and offer information about services through America's Job Center

Training

For Employers:

- On-the-Job Training (OJT) – Training that employers develop and conduct to bridge skill gaps with 50% monthly reimbursement to the employer.
- While all OJT in person skills training is on hold during the Shelter in Place mandate, we can assist you with completing your employer paperwork now.
