Monterey HELP Wildfire Grant

Monterey County Workforce Development Board has several initiatives available to support both employers and job seekers as we all work together to overcome obstacles related to the recent River/Carmel and Dolan Wildfire that has affected us all in Monterey County.

The Monterey HELP Wildfire Grant program provides workers impacted by the River/Carmel/Dolan Wildfires with over 20 weeks of paid work experience and the opportunity. This program uses disaster recovery funding to pay program participants in Monterey County.

The Mission of the Monterey HELP Wildfire Grant is to offer job opportunities to assist the community that has been impacted in the clean-up from the damage as result of the wildfires in Monterey County.

The Purpose of Monterey HELP Wildfire Grant is an opportunity to learn new skills and at same time revitalize our Parks to where they were prior to the August Wildfires. The program offers up to a 20-week work experience. For more information applicant can call 866-666-9332.
